

Texas Throwers Club

Club Goals

The goal of the Texas Throwers Club is to support masters throwing by holding throwing meets and clinics, supporting safe throwing, and demonstrating good sportsmanship at all meets attended by club members.

Code of Ethics

We expect all club members and their guests to conduct themselves with the highest level of sportsmanship and safety, which includes cooperating with Judges, competitors, and spectators, while maintaining a positive attitude. Club members should bring honor and dignity to the club.

- Adhere to principles of good sportsmanship.
- Observe safe throwing practices and be a partner in throwing safety with all club members, officials, participants and spectators.
- Maintain membership in good standing.
- Maintain a sportsman-like demeanor when representing Texas Throwers Club at club sponsored meets or at meets sponsored by other clubs or organizations.

Membership Requirements

Active membership in The Texas Throwers Club requires yearly dues of $20 which entitles club members to a discount on club sponsored meets and clinics and a discount on club products such as T shirts and ball caps. Lifetime members, USATF officials, and club sponsors are exempt from yearly dues.

Lifetime Membership

Lifetime members of the Texas Throwers Club are members over the age of 80 and the founders The Texas Throwers Club. Founders: Ed Riewerts, Steve Patridge, Robert Rogers, and Marty Wright. Lifetime members: John Cantrell, Jim Gerhardt, Bohn Hillard and Arch Zabel.

Club Directors

The club president and the four directors will serve four year terms starting in 2015. In conjunction with the annual Texas Throwers Invitational meet the club will hold a business meeting in order to review the club business and elect new a new president and directors when required.

Current club officials (2015 – 2016) President: Darrel Harriman. Directors: David Bolles, Seth Brower, Eric Cole and Ed Riewerts.